More zoom room fun!

Hi

We've had another week with lots going on in our zoom room. With events hosted by the various Spice groups across the country, we are able to offer a wide range of varied activities. Our Virtual Spa evening was very popular again, and we now have a new date for that, for anyone who hasn't yet given it a go (see below). On Friday we started the weekend with a trip back to the 60s, for a TSI Friday evening of quizzing and music. The request list was so long that Jackie is already planning another! On Saturday, Steve ran another entertaining Online Race Night - we bet with 'funny money' - it's all just for fun. Lauren ran another beginners' ukulele session on Sunday, and Jackie was back with her monthly book club on Monday. Barry from Barry taught us another line dance yesterday too!

Let's get quizzical!

I enjoyed running the Telly Addicts quiz last night, and with over 50 people joining in, it was another popular night. With some scores of over 70 points out of 100, it's clear that there really are some telly addicts in Spice. Perhaps we should have a Spice Gogglebox!

If anyone is ready for more quizzing, I'll be pulling some more questions together for Blue Monday Night!

We appreciate your feedback!

It's always good to know how we are doing, and we do appreciate your feedback and suggestions, so it was really nice to get this email from a Spice Yorkshire member in my inbox this morning 😊 ...

I haven't joined in much Spice stuff up until now - I joined just before Lockdown 1 kicked off so still haven't participated in any F2F activities.

Anyway, in recent days I joined Friday's 60's Pop Quiz and last night's TV Addicts one. This note's just to express appreciation for the effort being put in by the hosts with such events, of which the TV quiz that you hosted was an object lesson in imagination (some genuinely clever rounds there!) and preparation - I've led a LOT of online training in my time and so I know what goes on "behind the magician's curtain" with such things.

Well done and thanks again!

Please keep letting us know what you want to see!

Our TSI (Thank Spice It's) Friday nights are a fun way to start the weekend. This week's theme is theatre, so I expect we'll see a different type of facemask to the ones we have to wear to the supermarket!
