Enjoying the outdoors

Hi

On Sunday we took a walk alongside the Leeds Liverpool Canal from Leeds, as far as the Aire Valley Marina (above). We then turned around and walked back, arriving at the pub just as the heavens opened. A couple of very nice men kindly gave up their sheltered table for us, so we managed to stay dry to eat our lunch. There was a long waitlist for this, so we will be doing the walk again next month, but dining at the Midnight Bell afterwards. We have another canal walk this Saturday in Sheffield with drinks afterwards at Dorothy Pax, so I'm really hoping the weather is dry for that one!

We were less lucky for a couple of other events over the bank holiday weekend and have had to postpone the Curry Club in Bradford, and the Walk from Oughtibridge to future dates, but both still have availability if you would like to join us.

For those of you waiting for the answer to the Spice Fortunes teaser from last week's bulletin, the bird with a long neck, which the team chose to successfully steal the win, was a stork, worth 14 points.

Hoping to see you soon
Jonathan

Open up!

After a year off, Eurovision is back in a couple of weeks and we'll be following it in our Zoom room! We already have 34 bookings for our Eurovision Watch Party, and once we get to 39, we will enter everyone into our free sweepstake to win a £30 Spice holiday voucher and a Spice T-shirt. Book now to be part of it!

Weekend update

A few more places are now available on some of the WalkWise weekends! If you are on the waitlist for any of the breaks, and we can fit you in then we will be in touch soon. It's always worth going on the waitlist if you have missed out on an event, as you'll be the first to know if a place comes up.

The Yorkshire hostel weekends are almost full. There are only a few places left now on each of the Kettlewell and Scarborough weekends. You only need to pay a small deposit to secure your place.
