

Avoiding the storm

Hi

The (rather dark) photo shows us walking on 70 Acre Hill on Tuesday evening. We got great views of the lightning flashing all around Sheffield, but we managed to stay almost completely dry! The journey home was interesting though. We also enjoyed our game of golf in Leeds on Sunday, although some of us spent more time looking for lost balls than hitting them, and three of them ended up in the river! We'll look to arrange another game later in the summer.

Unfortunately, we didn't go ahead with the canal walk and outdoor drinks in Sheffield on Saturday but have rearranged it for Saturday 19 June. There are a few places now available for anyone that wants to join us.

The relaxing of the restrictions that will take place on Monday will give us options to meet in small numbers indoors, which is a big step forward and we'll be adding more events to the programme soon. Badminton is already back, and the first session will be next Tuesday - see the details below for that one.

Hoping to see you soon
Jonathan

Farewell Rachel

Many of you have met Rachel and even more will have spoken with her on the office phone over the last few years. Rachel popped onto our online coffee morning last Friday to say her goodbyes, as she leaves us to train for a new career in cyber security! We're sorry to lose her but wish her all the very best in her new direction.

Weekend update

We have a couple of new breaks this week. This September we have a Scottish weekend break in Pitlochry. It's always been a popular event, and our accommodation has recently been upgraded. Then in September next year, we now have a new walking break in Exmouth, which you can join for either the weekend, or the whole week.

The Yorkshire hostel weekends are almost full. There are only a few places left now on each of the Kettlewell and Scarborough weekends. You only need to pay a small deposit to secure your place.
